Critérios para Avaliação:

Assignment Submission: There are no hard-copy paper submissions in this course. All assignments will be submitted through Google Classroom.

Deadlines: The due dates for your assignments are strict. Late assignments are not accepted. If you have an emergency, please contact me before the deadline and documentation is required.

Email: During normal business hours (M-F, 9am-6pm) I will respond to emails within 24-48 hours (probably sooner). If you email me outside of those times or if I give you some notice about limited email, it may take me longer to respond. On weekends, I may not respond until Monday. If it has been more than 24 hours and you think I may have missed your email, please send another.

Technology: Phones and computers may be used if you like, but only for class-related material and note-taking. I may ask you to close all computers at any time, and if computers become distracting, I may change this policy. Computers and phones must be put away during speeches or presentations.

Special Accommodations: Academic accommodations are made when students need additional assistance. Please notify me as soon as possible.

English as a Second Language or Other Accommodations: Please let me know if you need special accommodations if English is not your primary language or if you are concerned about accommodations for any other reason.

OVERVIEW OF ASSIGNMENTS

Speech 1, Introduction Speech: This is a warm-up 1 minute speech about yourself in an effort for us all to get to know each other. This should help you feel more comfortable speaking in front of your classmates.

Speech 2, Informative Speech*: This is a 5-7 minute speech informing your classmates about a topic of your choice. We will model our speeches after TED Talks. The purpose of this speech is to sharpen research skills and provide credible evidence for your claims. Along with your in-class presentation, you will be required to turn in (on Blackboard) your speech outlines and references.

Speech 3, Persuasive Speech*: This is a 5-7 minute speech that will require you to craft effective arguments and to define and refute potential counterarguments. The purpose of your speech should be to request your audience to perform an action or to shift thoughts and feelings. Along with your in-class presentation, you will be required to turn in (on Blackboard) your speech outlines and references.

Speech 4, Sensory Aid Speech*: This is a 5-7 minute speech that utilizes visual, audio, or other non-verbal tools. The focus of the speech will be to enhance your claims with effective tools. You may revisit a topic or idea from your informative or persuasive speech. Along with your in-class presentation, you will be required to turn in (on Blackboard) your speech outlines and references.

Speech 5, Special Occasion Speech: This is a 2 minute speech modeled after something that you may be asked to give in real life. This can be a wedding toast, a graduation speech, a keynote, an introduction, etc. You choose. This will be an opportunity to further practice language selection and audience adaptation in a less formal environment.

*Note: These speeches require you to conduct external research. You must provide three to four sources for use during your speech.

Speech Reflections: After the first four speeches, you will write a 1-page (double-spaced) self-reflection about your performance for a total of four reflections. You should include concepts learned in class while reflecting on your strengths and places for improvement for next time.

Online Intro Survey: This survey will be distributed the first week of class. These questions will allow me to get to know you better.

TED Talk Analysis: As part of our discussion of informative speeches, you will provide a 1 page summary, critique of, and reflection on a TED Talk of your choice, as long as it exceeds 10 minutes (selection is available at <https://www.ted.com/talks>).

Final Self-Reflection: This is a 1-2 page (double-spaced, before references) self-reflection paper that discusses concepts learned and adopted, progress made, and room that remains for improvement. You should expand on what you've written in previous reflections, not just reiterate what you already said. Evaluate your improvement throughout the entire course, and how you wish to utilize all of the concepts learned in class. Think about future occasions where you will be asked to speak in front of others, and how you will utilize what you've learned here for those situations. This is in place of a final exam.

Shark Tank Exercise: This is an in-class activity designed to put persuasive speaking skills into practice. Students will team up and present an idea or innovation to a panel of "sharks" in an effort to persuade the sharks to fund their project. The winning team will receive 10 extra credit points.

Participation and Attendance: One goal of this course is for you to feel more confident speaking up, asking questions, and participating more generally. Even lectures will have discussion components. We will learn more if we engage with each other and contribute to class discussions. Additionally, there will be several sessions where we will be doing impromptu speaking activities. These are very important for you to feel more comfortable speaking in a variety of settings and without formal preparation.

Because of this, I expect students to attend all classes, other than pre-approved excused absences (illness, religious observance, university-sanctioned activities) or emergencies.
